

ESV workshop: working with corporates

A joint workshop run by Time & Talents for Westminster and Time for Paddington (sister programmes) for community organisations based in the North of Westminster.

When: Tuesday 11 May 2010, 2.30 – 5.00, Paddington

Theme: Employer Supported Volunteering: working with corporates

This workshop has been designed for senior managers and those coordinating volunteers within charities, schools and hospitals. There will be opportunity to learn more about the Time & Talents for Westminster and Time for Paddington programmes and how you can get the most from working with us.

Outline agenda

- Welcome and introductions
- What is Employer Supported Volunteering (ESV)? Current trends of corporate giving
- What do I need to consider before starting ESV?
- What's in it for me / my organisation?
- Give to gain - how can I get more from corporate relationships?
- Working in partnership - sharing top tips together

Meeting timings

2.30 – arrivals

3.00 – prompt start

5.00 – close

RSVP to Sholi by 30 April

Telephone: 020 7087 4353

Email: sholi.loewenthal@volunteer.co.uk